

His feet in the sands of time
His head in infinity

Let us both find out
What you've got on your mind
What it's all about

We realised the time had come we hated so

Finding secrets he won't keep

Don't believe any more
In this war
All a man can believe in
Is his horse

Friends tell me I'll lose my mind
If all I do is spend my time
With you

I can't stop thinking 'bout you
Hoping wishes come true
All day pictures of you
Flash through my mind, all the time

It's you and me
It's meant to be
